

2008 WGS WINTER GRAZING SEMINAR

Sidney, Montana

January 23rd-24th
Sidney Country Club
2250 West Holly Street
Sidney, Montana

“Catch the coach to Sidney”

Wednesday January 23rd

Registration will begin at 10:00 a.m.

Luncheon 12:00-1:00 p.m.

Welcome to 2008 WGS from Steve Hedstrom, RREC Chairman and Tony Barone, Richland County Conservation District Chairman

Featured Speaker: Kit Pharo
Pharo Cattle Company in Cheyenne Wells, Colorado
“From Production to Profit in Ranching”

Additional Speakers:

Dennis Phillippi, Society for Range Management (SRM) President
“Cooperative Monitoring”

Ken Olson, South Dakota State University Extension Beef Specialist
“Evaluating Alternative Strategies for Beef Production”

Social at the Sidney Country Club starting at 5:30 p.m.

With music from the XIT Gals

Banquet 6:30 p.m. – with Taylor Brown as MC

Roast Beef Dinner

Presentation of the Colors and National Anthem

Keynote Address – Governor Brian Schweitzer (invited)

Entertainment – Ryan Taylor

Attention!!

Certified Professionals in Rangeland Management
7 CEU credits are pre-approved for the seminar by the Society for Range Management (SRM).

Thursday January 24th

Breakfast will be served 8:00-9:00 a.m. with the seminar to follow.

Speakers:

Wayne Burleson, Rancher/Consultant

“The Art of Pasture Walking for Solutions”

Rachel Endecott, Montana State University Extension Beef Cattle Specialist

“Biological Risk Management”

Local Producer Panel:

Topics including use of local by-products for feed supplement and oil development in Richland County.

Range Leader Award!!

The 2007 Range Leader of the Year Awards will be announced at the banquet.

Hosted by Richland County Conservation District

For more information please contact

Julie Goss at (406) 433-2103 ext. 101 or Heidi Olbert at (406) 444-6619

